Chairman's Note

Marcia Turner informed you in the Spring Newsletter that she would not be standing for re-election and at our AGM held last month I was elected as Chair of Sutton U3A. In the seven years that Marcia was Chair she implemented many improvements and changes and she will be a hard act to follow.

As I am now Chair I have had to relinquish the post I held as Secretary of our Branch but we are very fortunate that Debbie Edwards, a new member, has agreed to take over this position. I am sure that she will be a great asset to the Committee and I look forward to working with her.

You will be aware that the post of Groups Co-ordinator is now vacant. We would really welcome any Member (or Members as the post could be shared between two people) coming forward – every help and assistance would be given by the Committee – please contact me if you would like to discuss it.

Until we have a Groups Co-ordinator it is essential that all Group Leaders have a point of contact should they have any vacancies or queries. Therefore, each member of the Committee will be allocated a number of Groups to look after, with a letter going out to each Group Leader advising them of their allocated Committee Member.

It was a Committee decision some months ago to update our current Constitution which we inherited in 2007, when an entirely new Committee was formed. To this end we have decided to adopt the model constitution suggested by Head Office and currently we are liaising with them to incorporate amendments which will cover the needs of our Branch. I hope that the amendments will be finalised in the near future and that the Committee will be in a position to present the Constitution to Members for adoption in the Autumn.

Finally, do contact me if you have any events/ideas for our Branch, we have a really friendly Branch with great Groups and I look forward to its continued growth.

Audrey Willson

Chairman

OUR VISION

is to make Lifelong Learning, through the experience of U3A, a reality for all third agers.

OUR MISSION

declares our purpose as an organisation and serves as the standard against which we weigh our actions and decisions. It is to:

- Facilitate the growth of the movement.
- Provide support for management and learning in U3As.
- Raise the profile of the U3A movement.
- Promote the benefits of learning in later life through self help learning.

THE PRINCIPLES OF THE U3A MOVEMENT

The U3A Movement is non-religious and non-political and has three main principles:

The Third Age Principle

- a) Membership of a U3A is open to all in their third age, which is defined not by a particular age but by a period in life in which full time employment has ceased.
- b) Members promote the values of lifelong learning and the positive attributes of belonging to a U3A.
- c) Members should do all they can to ensure that people wanting to join a U3A can do so.

The Self-help Learning Principle

- a) Members form interest groups covering as wide a range of topics and activities as they desire; by the members, for the members.
- b) No qualifications are sought or offered. Learning is for its own sake, with enjoyment being the prime motive, not qualifications or awards.
- c) There is no distinction between the learners and the teachers; they are all U3A members.

The Mutual Aid Principle

- a) Each U3A is a mutual aid organisation, operationally independent but a member of The Third Age Trust, which requires adherence to the guiding principles of the U3A Movement.
- b) No payments are made to members for services rendered to any U3A.
- c) Each U3A is self-funded with membership subscriptions and costs kept as low as possible.
- d) Outside financial assistance should only be sought if it does not imperil the integrity of the U3A movement.

January 2014

A brief outline of the talk given by Lin Jonas, Senior Executive Officer of the Third Age Trust at the one-day Network Conference held in April this year at East Grinstead.

Lin gave an excellent account of our present situation and of planned improvements for the future. This is not a summary of what was said but does give many of the main highlights of a long presentation.

The U3A Movement – Now and in the Future

We are currently in very good health with 927 U3As having 322,095 members and 41 U3As formed in the last year. The new website became operational in September 2013. On-line courses have been re-vamped, advanced learning groups have been created and more subject advisors have been recruited.

The third-party insurance cover has been raised from £5m to £10m.

The Resource Centre is being used by 94% of U3As and they send out over 4,800 packages each year.

The National Office needs more staff to cope with the increasing workload and succession planning is needed as several staff members are in the age range to be able to consider retirement.

Despite the rising state retirement age, from 60 for women and 65 for men, to 68 for everyone over the next few years, there is still a strong need to provide U3A opportunities for people as they retire. New and younger members are essential to keep U3As vibrant and the new members generally have good IT skills which helps the U3A and other members. Currently male life expectancy increases are greater than for women. The Trust hopes to participate in research on ageing, health and well-being.

The many national events are proving very successful. The Royal Institution has offered a second afternoon of lectures in September. We are becoming well known in the field and now institutions are approaching the Trust with new offers of events.

Remember we are a Learning Organisation based on the principles set out by the Founders. The April issue of Third Age Matters will have had a summary of those principles for all to read and appreciate afresh.

DISCUSSION GROUP

2pm to 4pm in Room 3 at the Civic Centre

An informal discussion group held where members can speak as many times as they like. Serious subject in first half, with a more light hearted subject in the second.

Future Dates:

- 4th July Is Britain a Christian Country?
 Future of the British Monarchy
- 1st Aug The Dying High Street
 Obsessed by Modern Technology
- 5th Sept Local Politics

INVESTIGATING EUROPE

10.30am to 12.30pm at the Civic Centre

The Group has been examining the liquidation of Victorian 'certainty' in European culture between 1880 and 1914, in preparation to studying the cataclysm of 1914.

It continues this year, with the effects of trans-European conflict on ideas and consequent changes in the social & political analyses & expectations which came to define post-war Europe.

There will not be any meetings during July and August.

Next dates: September 17th
 October 15th

Group Leader Maurice Pearton

SCIENCE GROUP

6th Form Common Room at Nonsuch High School for Girls, Cheam Road, Cheam. Open at 2.30pm for 3pm start. This is a collaborative effort between the school and three local U3A Branches, which are Sutton, Banstead and Epsom. Contact Derek Yeo 020 8647 4016

There are new security measures at the school, please contact Derek Yeo if you have not attended before

The Science lectures at Nonsuch High School for Girls are funded through an outreach programme by the School. We are sorry to announce that due to the reduction in Government funding, the lectures will only be held once per term in future.

The dates of lectures for the remainder of the year are:

16th July, 8th October and 10th December.

Next year: 21st January, 25th March, 20th May and 17th June 2015.

SOCIAL CLUB NEWS

Friday, 15th August

The Henry Moore Foundation
Perry Green, Hertfordshire

Calling all art lovers! This visit includes the artists' home and Studios, Galleries and Displays in Parkland. Bring your sketchbook or camera. Anyone who saw the recent Henry Moore display at Kew Gardens or saw pictures, will recall how spectacular it was. You can touch the forms outdoors, but sorry strictly no climbing.

After tea/coffee and biscuits on arrival we shall have a guided tour of Henry Moore's Home 'Hoglands' and Studios, with a further afternoon tour through the gardens to the Studios and Gallery.

Although there are paths (and benches) in the park there is quite a lot of walking, so comfortable walking shoes are necessary, plus a raincoat and broly if the weather is uncertain! Mobility scooters or wheelchairs can be booked in advance – or bring your own! The small café serves hot drinks, cakes and snacks. Please bring a picnic lunch – undercover seating is available.

Because the Henry Moore foundation is tucked away down narrow country lanes, only small coaches are permitted – our small 33 seater costs more than a bigger one! Add to this the £13 entrance fee, cost of refreshments on arrival and the driver's tip, our day out costs more than usual – but it is "at cost". It should be a fascinating day out to a unique destination.

Cost of Trip £29.00

BOOK EARLY!

Wednesday, 10th September

Nuffield Place & Henley on Thames

We start our outing with a visit to Nuffield Place, which is situated at Huntercombe, close to Henley-on-Thames in Oxfordshire. Nuffield Place reveals the surprisingly down-to-earth lives of Lord Nuffield, founder of the Morris Motor Company, and his wife. Their home and personal possessions are just as they left them, the decor and furnishings intact.

From the comfortable sitting room with a small black and white TV, to Lord Nuffield's humble bedroom with a secret built-in workshop, this intimate home exudes the tastes and interests of its remarkable owner.

The décor and furnishings remain as they left them in 1933. Upon our arrival we will be split into two groups. One half will visit the house, whilst the rest will have time to explore the gardens. Then the groups will change over. The whole visit will take about two hours. There is the Coronation Café where you can buy drinks and snacks, but if you want a proper lunch we advise you to wait until we get to Henley.

Henley on Thames is adjacent to the river and overlooked by the beautiful Chiltern Hills. It has an historic church and market square, and you can take a self-guided walking tour around the town. Famous for the Henley Regatta, and the Henley Festival of Music and Art, it also boasts three galleries. They are dedicated to Rowing, Rivers and the History of Henley which is home to 'The Wind in the Willows' Exhibition.

The Pajama Game
Shaftesbury Theatre, WC1

In 1950s America, love is in the air at the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory as handsome new Superintendent Sid Sorokin (Michael Xavier) falls head-over-heels for feisty Union rep Babe Williams (Joanna Riding). Sparks fly when the employees are refused a seven-and-a-half cents an hour raise, leaving Sid and Babe deliciously at odds as the temperature rises in this buoyantly blissful blend of romance and comedy. Will love, eventually, conquer all?

For the matinee performance we have managed to secure a special Group rate of £35 for tickets which are usually £65.

Bookings must be received by the end of July.

September to December

Art Gallery Guided Tours
by Ann Davies, BA, MA

Following a full and enthusiastic take up of the tours to a variety of galleries in London during the Spring and Summer 2014, Ann Davies has kindly agreed with the Social Committee a special package for Sutton U3A members, of £50 for FOUR tours in the Autumn.

IF PAID FOR AT THE TIME OF BOOKING.

Single bookings will remain at £15 each.

Places are strictly limited and will be allocated on a "first come, first served" basis.

Each tour will commence at 11.30 a.m. and will last approximately two hours, with a short refreshment break.

Each group member will be given a hand-out summarising each tour.

Booking forms for Coach Outings, Theatre Trip and Art Tours are at the back of the Newsletter

ART GALLERY GUIDED TOURS - by Ann Davies, BA, MA

24 September - The National Gallery

Trafalgar Square, London. WC2N 5DN

This tour will look at what the Renaissance meant visually north of the Alps. As a result we will consider works by artists such as Jan van Eyck, Holbein and Dürer referencing influences from the south including Titian and Leonardo da Vinci.

15 October - Courtauld Gallery,

Somerset House, Strand, London, WC2R 0RN

In this elegant setting we will consider the idea of an artistic collection. The small but beautifully formed Courtauld Collection incorporates works by Tiepolo, Gainsborough, Manet, Cézanne, Degas and many more. The entrance fee is included in the price of the tour.

12 November - The National Portrait Gallery,

London, WC2H 0HE (next to the National Gallery)

Using their vast collection of paintings of the most famous people in British history, we will look at what the portrait meant during the Victorian and Edwardian period. This will take us from the more sombre portraits of politicians by Millais to the glamorous society paintings by Sergeant.

3 December - The National Gallery

Trafalgar Square, London. WC2N 5DN

The final tour for the year will explore the art produced during Spain's golden age. This will incorporate Velázquez and his sensuous Rokeby Venus, the drama of Zurbarán and the poignant Murillo. We will brush against their influences and the art of Titian as well as acknowledge the work of their contemporaries such as Caravaggio and his followers.

SOCIAL CLUB GUIDELINES

Any outing includes coach hire, a tip for the driver and entrance fee – we are non-profit making. But due to rising fuel prices coach costs keep rising too.

1. Bookings. These must be made using the application form, plus cheque to secure a place, either by post (plus SAE) to the organiser or in person at a General Meeting. Verbal requests do not secure a confirmed place.

A STAMPED ADDRESSED ENVELOPE must be enclosed when booking by post in order that a receipt can be sent which confirms a place on the outing.

An EMERGENCY CONTACT is requested as, without this, the organiser would not know how or who to inform should a member have an accident or be taken ill, especially if they were unable to travel home on the coach. We hope this shows an assurance of care, and is not perceived as intrusive. All applications are treated as confidential and are destroyed after the outing or theatre trip.

The organiser of each outing will keep a WAITING LIST

2. Payment – by cheque only please!
One cheque for EACH outing or theatre trip. Each event has its own organiser and funding etc.
3. Guests – Members are welcome to invite their non-U3A spouse or a friend, on ONE outing or theatre trip per year.

Cancellations of Bookings for outings and theatre trips. In the case of hospital admissions and/or appointments at short notice.

4. We ENDEAVOUR to make a refund ONLY IF the place can be filled from the waiting list.
NB. NO REFUND will be made to anyone failing to turn up –or do not turn up by the PICK UP time stipulated on the day.

NEW MEMBERS' COFFEE MORNING

The next Coffee Morning for new or prospective new members will be held at the Oasis Coffee Shop, Trinity Church Hall, (opposite Sutton Civic Centre) on Thursday 7th August 2014 at 10:30am

OTHER GROUP NEWS

Potential New Groups

Anthony Trollope – Reading/Study Group

I am interested in starting a Reading Group in the Autumn, looking just at Trollope and trying to get beyond the “Barchester” books. I am a trustee of the Trollope Society (and therefore a devotee of the author and reasonably well-informed).

Initially I would like to find the level of interest in this Group and, once I know that, I would suggest having a preliminary meeting to determine the programme. I envisage meeting every other month as the novels are long and will take time to get through. As to times/days, I would prefer to leave that to the availability of the majority, bi-monthly meeting dates can almost be made from one meeting to the next.

I envisage that this Group would run for twelve months as 2015 marks the 200th Anniversary of Trollope’s birth.

Please contact me if you are interested.

Pamela Morgan - pamelamrgn@aol.com or 020 8642 5103

Men’s Reading Group

It has been commented on that both The Book Club and Bookworms groups appear to cater only to women. This has not been intentional but it would appear that our gentlemen do not apply to join these groups.

We would like to find out if there is enthusiasm for a reading group catering especially for the types of books that gentlemen would prefer to read, possibly meeting either in one of their homes or at a local hostelry.

If anyone is interested in being part of such a group, please telephone Debbie Edwards on 020 8643 8630 or email on debbie.j.edwards@btinternet.com

Social Studies Group

The Social Studies Group has been part of Sutton U3A for about 20 years, during which time we have enjoyed a varied programme of investigation, discussion and interest. Now, while the members are still young at heart, they are finding it difficult to get to meetings and have reluctantly decided to close the Group.

Leader Social Studies Group

Thank you to Ann and all those who have participated in the group.

SPOTLIGHT ON GROUPS

One of our newer and lesser known groups is Cardmaking and Papercraft. This is held on the third Monday afternoon of the month at a member's home near to Granfers Community Centre. (On the S1 bus route).

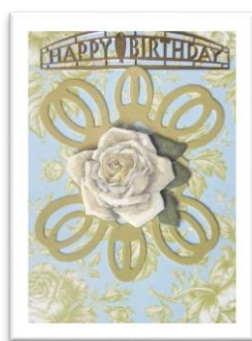

Group Leader is Pat Wilson who offers instruction in various techniques such as:

 Embossing **

 Decoupage * Punching **

 Stamping * Teabag Paper Folding **

Pat has all the specialist tools needed together with paper and card. There is a small charge of 50p per session for materials and you can take home what you have made.

To enable close attention to each member, Pat prefers to keep to a small group. At present there are only three vacancies. If you are interested, call her on 020 642 8714.

SEPTEMBER'S SPEAKER

As we will not be publishing another newsletter before the meeting in September, details of the speaker are below:

Speaker John Halligan - "How Charing got it's Cross" – 26th September

John, who lives in Hayes, Kent, has had a life-long interest in history. In 2004 he qualified as a City of London Guide. In his talk 'How Charing got its Cross', John will describe a love story from 13th Century England and how the king built a series of memorials to his late wife, some of which survive today. He'll also include fascinating details from life in the medieval period.

Obituary

Pauline Champion sadly lost her battle with cancer recently. She greatly enjoyed the U3A London Appreciation Group and the coach outings and very much valued the friendship of other U3A members.

Pauline and I were friends since school; she was a very sociable person with a good sense of humour and I will miss her, as will her many other friends.

Celia Harrison

"My mother said I must always be intolerant of ignorance but understanding of illiteracy. That some people, unable to go to school, were more educated and more intelligent than college professors."

Maya Angelou (1928 – 2014) was an African-American author, poet, dancer, and singer. She published seven autobiographies, three books of essays, and several books of poetry, and was credited with a list of plays, movies, and television shows spanning more than 50 years. She received dozens of awards and over fifty honorary degrees.

SUTTON SENIORS' FORUM

I am pleased to report that Sutton U3A now has Group Membership of Sutton Seniors' Forum and as such Sutton U3A Members can attend any Forum Meeting

The Forum was started in 1996 to promote the welfare and interests of Seniors and help to overcome social isolation by providing social and cultural activities within the London Borough of Sutton. It is run by volunteer Seniors and its funding comes from membership fees, various grants and subsidised activities.

The Forum meets 10 times a year and meetings are held at Granfers Community Centre, 73-79 Oakhill Road, Sutton SM1 3AA.

The dates for the remainder of 2014 are:

15 August; 18 September; 10 October;
14 November & 19 December
2pm – 4pm

Refreshments are provided at the meetings.

Some Sutton U3A Members have individual Membership of Sutton Seniors' Forum, but now that we have Group Membership any Sutton U3A Member is entitled to attend Forum Meetings and also participate in activities that the Forum put on, such as exercise classes, and choir. Also up to four Group Members can go on any coach trips that are arranged by the Forum. There is also a range of cultural events throughout the year including recitals and a Christmas Carol Concert.

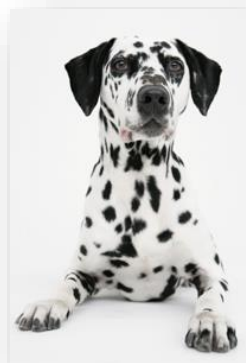

The Group Membership No for Sutton U3A for 2014 is....G25.

The Telephone Number for the Forum Office is 020 8401 2741 - contact Pauline Hannington.

Website: www.suttonseniorsforum.co.uk

I would suggest that it is a good idea to take your Sutton U3A Membership Card when you attend any activity held by the Forum.
