MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SUTTON U3A HELD AT TRINITY CHURCH HALL, SUTTON ON FRIDAY 25th MAY 2012

WELCOME

Marcia Turner welcomed everyone to the AGM especially any new members present.

MINUTES OF LAST AGM HELD ON 27TH MAY 2011

There were no matters arising and these were approved unanimously.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT - This was circulated in the Spring Newsletter 2012.

Marcia Turner thanked all Group Leaders/Hosts, Social Club & Executive Committee members for all their hard work, as well as all Members for their on-going contributions to Sutton U3A. She also stressed that if any member was thinking of starting up a new Group, Committee Members would be available to help with the start-up and they would be happy to be present at Group Meetings to help in any way to assist the new Group Leaders. It is very necessary for new Groups to be founded to ease the waiting lists.

SECRETARY'S REPORT - This was circulated in the Spring Newsletter 2012.

TREASURER'S REPORT - Treasurer's Report and Accounts were circulated at the meeting.

Peter Raw wished to record thanks to Nick Harrington for examining the Accounts and also for the continued help and expertise from Paul Kehoe. Paul Kehoe has agreed to examine the Accounts for the forthcoming year.

He also expressed his sincere thanks and appreciation to all Committee Members with whom he has worked with over the years. As he is stepping down as Treasurer the post of Treasurer is now in the capable hands of Bill Brewer.

Peter then went on to give an overall analysis of the accounts which showed an overspend of £1,100 – the examples he gave were as follows:-

- Increase in Printing and Copying
- Increase in Postage
- Increase in cost of Third Age Trust Mailing

The first two of these increases relate to the Newsletter and he stressed that it is important that we find ways of reducing these costs as postage will increase later this year. This could be done in one of two ways – increasing income by increasing Subscription costs or by reducing expenditure.

The cost of sending out the Newsletter can be reduced by it being sent by email to Members and he asked Members present to indicate by a show of hands those who had a computer and email addresses. Quite a few members indicated this, and Peter asked those Members to send their email addresses either to Chris Pocock or Mavis McCarthy.

Peter also pointed out that we need in excess of 400 Members to meet our expenses.

The Charity investment Fund (COIF) stands at £6,463.87

The Social Club balance stands at £1,080.64.

The Bank Balance currently stood at £4,814.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Mavis McCarthy reported that membership as at 31st March stood at 359 – however currently it stands at 323 Members with 32 new Members, 11 resignations and the death of 5 members. Mavis also reiterated the need for new groups to be set up and also stressed the help that would be given if a Member would consider becoming a Group Leader.

SOCIAL CLUB REPORT

Maggs Sandilands gave a report on the social activities, these were:

5 Coach Outings

A July memorial concert for Margaret Adamez

Social Bridge fortnightly

2 Socials for existing Members and also to welcome new Members

Varied Programme of Theatre Outings including Plays, Musical & a visit to the Opera

Christmas Lunch in December

She said that all events are organised so that costs are kept down to the bare minimum and that rarely are there any empty seats on the outings. She also thanked all the people who had helped to organise trips and visits.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Marcia expressed her thanks to Peter Raw for all his hard work as Treasurer and handed him a farewell gift – she also expressed her thanks to Beryl Coleman who had resigned as Minutes Secretary and as she was not present would be forwarding onto her a farewell gift.

Marcia also welcomes Shirley Ellerbeck onto the Committee – Shirley will be responsible for our new Website and other computer matters.

ELECTION TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The following people had been nominated and were elected to serve for the coming year:

Bill Brewer; Chris Pocock; Maggs Sandilands; Marcia Turner; Peter Turner; Audrey Willson; Mavis McCarthy, Shirley Ellerbeck & Moira Wickham (Treasurer of Social Committee). The position of Minutes Secretary is currently vacant.

Marcia thanked everyone for coming to the meeting.

CHAIR'S ANNUAL REPORT 2012/13

I am pleased to report that Sutton U3A continues to grow and tries to respond to changing membership needs. The major challenges for any U3A these days, is to balance the budget and provide a variety of groups and outings.

The budget is a constant challenge as our major costs (room rents, printing and postage) are not always predictable or within our control.

Our decision last year to update our website and deliver as many of our newsletters by email as possible, is well underway. Fortunately Shirley Ellerbeck joined the Committee and has the necessary knowledge and skills to do this work. She has spent many hours on the task and finally on 12 .12 .12, the website went live and since November we have been sending a growing number of members their newsletter by email, (108 at the last count). Others collect theirs at the General Meeting. This change saves on the cost of paper, envelopes and stamps.

The number of groups remains about the same; it is the topics that change. For example we now have less gardening groups but two craft groups. We have three London Appreciation Groups and there are always waiting lists for these Groups. Our constant plea is for more members to lead and host groups, possibly sharing the task with another group member.

None of this work could be done without the commitment and support of your Committee, together with the Group leaders, who all give of their time freely and willingly. I thank them most sincerely on your behalf.

Marcia Turner

Chairman

SOCIAL CLUB REPORT 2012/13

The Social Club has had a busy year with monthly outings from May to September to a variety of destinations. These have included a stately home and glorious garden. An exotic wildlife trust and motor museum. And a 16th century timber home. Other trips have included a visit to the seaside via a church decorated like the Sistine Chapel and a visit to the home of 19th century Prime Minister Benjamin Disraeli.

However as some outings were under - subscribed, we circulated a questionnaire in the autumn. Many thanks to all those who completed it, the feedback indicates that the majority of members are happy with our choices.

There were visits to the ballet and several musicals at Wimbledon Theatre, plus a trip to the West End to see the musical Matilda.

Many thanks to the hard working committee; Jenny Kehoe and Ann Wilson for the theatre outings. Whilst Mavis McCarthy, Liz Robson, Betty Stratford (Secretary) and Moira Wickham (Treasurer) all organised outings.

Maggs Sandilands

Many thanks to Maggs who, in addition to her work with the Social Committee, reports to the Executive Committee and General Meetings of Members on the Social Club's activities.

Chris Pocock

Deputy Chairman

OBITUARY

Esmé Green

18th October 1934 - 12th October 2012

La Vie En Rosefor Esmé

*Esmé truly was the very best of us!
Warm, open hearted, softly spoken,
generous of spirit, a safe pair of hands
and my/our friend.*

I belong to The Saraswati Yoga Studio and am a teacher there. We regularly went on "Retreat" to Brecon, in Wales, and it was on one of these occasions that I first met Esmé. She was quiet, considered and ready, aye ready for whatever the day held. Always open to new possibilities and experiences, revelling in the beauty of the countryside and the stimulating atmosphere; fully immersing herself and being a part of.

She never shied away from anything, including the news that she had a form of Leukaemia which was untreatable and would claim her life.

Esmé led the U3A Creative Writing Group, of which I was a member. There were four of us and we spent many happy afternoons reading our pieces, stories and tales often filled with hilarious anecdotes, of which, Esmé had plenty to share having led a very full and varied life – including running a Jazz Bar in the South of Spain!

Esmé and I also belonged to a Yoga Self Awareness Writing Group and it was here that we opened our hearts and shared life experiences. She always held and supported us and gave each one a sense of worth always selecting the right words that made you feel validated.

I also had the pleasure of being her sometime gardener for a number of years. Not a keen gardener herself, but kitted out in her large straw hat, baggy tee shirt and loose slacks, we attacked the garden with gusto! Laughing a lot as we pruned, snipped and clipped. Always stylish, though she didn't think so, she would provide coffee and biscuits mid-morning and then on to lunch with a glass of good wine.

I was involved in the later months of her life as she steadfastly moved towards the inevitable. With courage and grace Esmé faced the truth of leaving us.

In the last nine months of her life, which she consistently told me were the best months of her life, she showed me how to live and die gracefully and peacefully. She was my wise teacher and I honour her for that. Esmé loved and was loved and I know others feel this way too.

As I listen to one of her favourite songs – La Vie En Rose I miss her.

Tai Chi Beginners Class

IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THIS CLASS WILL START AFTER EASTER

Some information on Tai Chi

Tai Chi is a low impact form of exercise which consists of slow, graceful, flowing movements that are gentle on joints and muscles and which everyone can learn at their own pace.

Studies have shown that Tai Chi can be beneficial to the over 60's as it helps to reduce stress, improve balance and general mobility, thus increasing strength in the legs and is ideal for raising activity levels gently and gradually.

Tai Chi was developed originally as a martial art in 13th Century China but today it is practised around the world as a health promoting exercise.

If you have any health concerns or haven't exercised for a long time, speak to your GP before starting Tai Chi.

COACH OUTINGS

Saffron Walden and Audley End
Thursday, 23rd May
Cost £23.50
English Heritage Members £13.25

We drive directly to Saffron Walden in Essex. This very attractive town is one of the finest preserved examples of a medieval market town. The markets date back to 1141. You will have time to explore a variety of historic buildings from the 12th century, within the conservation area. It is recommended that you have your lunch here.

We then travel just one mile to the Audley End House and Estate. The house takes its name from Sir Thomas Audley, Lord Chancellor to Henry VII, who adapted the building from the original Walden Abbey. Over the years it has had many owners and several restorations; today it is owned by English Heritage. Apart from tours of the house, you can also visit the gardens, stables, kitchens and the renowned walled kitchen garden.

At Audley End scooters and wheelchairs are available to hire, free of charge, but must be pre-booked. Ring Betty Stratford to make a booking.
Tel No: 0208 395 2763

Romsey and Mottisfont House & Gardens
Friday, 14th June
Cost £21.25
National Trust Members £13.00

We drive directly to Romsey in Hampshire. It is a small medieval market town, which sits on the banks of the River Test. It is well known because of its connections with the Mountbatten family who live nearby at Broadlands. You will have time to explore the tourist attractions of the famous Abbey, King John's House and the Town Hall. They are all close together, so not too much walking.

It is recommended that we have lunch in Romsey, before we head off to Mottisfont in the afternoon, approximately 5 miles away.

Mottisfont is a romantic house, set in beautiful riverside gardens, and is now owned by the National Trust. On the site of the house are Gothic remains of the original 13th century Augustinian priory. The society hostess and patron of the Arts, Maud Russell, lived here in the mid-twentieth century. Today there is an art gallery with changing exhibitions; from traditional water colours to contemporary art. Not to be missed are the walled gardens, home to the world famous rose collection, which are at their best in June. Light refreshments are available.

If you are a member of English Heritage or National Trust, please remember to bring your membership card on the day

COACH OUTINGS

Rochester
Historic Rochester
Friday, 5th July
Cost £14.40

As well as Rochester's well known association with Charles Dickens, the ancient town boasts the second oldest cathedral in the country, plus extensive castle ruins with a magnificent Norman keep. (Now managed by English Heritage.) The Guildhall built in 1687 is now a museum with a unique replica of a convict prison ship. The Elizabethan mansion, Restoration House, was recently filmed as Satis House, the home of Miss Havesham in Great Expectations. There are also 16th Century almshouses known as the Six Poor Travellers. All this, as well as interesting shops and a big choice of pubs and cafes.

There will be a guided walk in the morning, leaving the afternoon free to explore. Restoration House and Garden, now privately owned, can be visited at a cost of £6.50 for individuals, or at Group rates.

Gilbert White's House & Gardens
The Oates Collection
Tuesday, 20th August
Cost £19.25

We will first visit the town of Alton, where there are plenty of places to choose for lunch.

We will then go to Gilbert White's House. This was featured on BBC Countryfile just before Christmas. The Rev. Gilbert White (1720-1793) was a gardener, naturalist and ecologist, who was an acknowledged inspiration to Darwin. This lovely house is furnished as it was in his time. The beautiful garden covers five acres and the parkland twenty acres.

The Oates Collection is an exhibition created in 2011 to commemorate the century since the fateful expedition to the South Pole, of Captain Lawrence Oates with Scott. We will have an introductory talk.

There is a tearoom and shop, and the nearby village of Selborne is pretty.

Please complete the form at the back of the newsletter, and send with your cheque for £19.25, payable to "Sutton U3A Social Club", to Mavis McCarthy.

Booking form links are on the newsletter page
